

Stella PARTON

American Coal Concert

Tuesday, March 23, 2010

Performing Arts Center

Bluefield High School

Outsiders are determined to end coal mining in Appalachia and, eventually, in the United States. Tens of thousands of jobs, and the stability of thousands of families and entire communities are at risk.

International award-winning, Grammy nominated artist and songwriter Stella Parton has released a new CD entitled "American Coal" and in conjunction with the release of this new CD, a series of American Coal Concerts are being arranged throughout the country to show support of the coal industry.

Tickets will be available beginning Thursday!

$25

Preferred Seating

Ticket Locations:

Bluefield Daily Telegraph • Princeton Times •
All Grant's Supermarkets
Greater Bluefield Chamber of Commerce

$20

General Admission

Doors Open at 6:30 p.m. • Show Starts at 7:30 p.m.

Local Bluegrass Favorite

Bent Hickory

will open the show at 7:30 p.m.

All ticket proceeds will benefit the Newspapers in Education Fund and WE Can program.

Presented by:

Bluefield Daily Telegraph

GREATER BLUEFIELD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
VIRGINIA WEST VIRGINIA

Coal News
Coal's Foremost Publication

